North Seattle College Education Fund Val Donato Award Nomination Form

(The Val Donato Award is an annual award of up to $500 that goes to an NSC Parent Education Instructor in recognition of her/his work and in tribute to Val Donato for her many years of commitment to building an excellent Parent Education Program at NSC.)

Form must be submitted to the Dean of Workforce Instruction by the final deadline of May 19th 2018.

The winner will be announced at the Parent Education Faculty end of the year luncheon and posted on the PAC website http://coops.northseattle.edu/

Parent Education Instructor's name:	Date:
Nominator's name:	Telephone and email address of nominator:
Role in relation to the nominee (student/teacher/instructor):	Class name and age group (if applicable)
Answer the questions below. Please provide specific examples.
1. What strengths does the instructor possess that demonstrate his/her knowledge of parenting, adult learning theory to support the children and parents in the program?
2. In what way(s) does the instructor engage and support children, parents, caregivers, teachers, and/or advise the board (or director of the program)?
3. What strengths does the instructor possess that demonstrate his/her respect and sensitivity to the cultural differences of the families in the program?
4. Describe a learning moment you experienced with this instructor
: 5. (Optional) Additional comments:
Please note: Your comments will be shared with the nominee.
Submit nomination form to: Aaron Korngiebel, Interim Dean, Workforce Instruction Division North Seattle College aaron.korngiebel@seattlecolleges.edu or 9600 College Way North Seattle, WA 98103
Forms must be received by May 19, 2018.
Dean Initials when received	Date